

Department of Economics

Useful Websites for First-Year Ph.D. Students

1. You should be familiar with the Graduate Coordinator's homepage at:
http://www.terry.uga.edu/economics/programs/phd_graduate_coordinator.html

2. The details about the Mathematical Economics (Econ 8000) course are linked from the homepage or can be accessed directly from <http://www.terry.uga.edu/~schatt/gc/math.html>

The syllabus for last year's course (Fall 2009) is currently linked. Information for the Fall 2010 course will be posted soon.

3. To create a UGA MyID (UGA email), go to <https://myidtest.uga.edu/>
You may have to wait for a while before you do this.

4. Some General Information for Graduate Students (Grad School) is available at <http://www.grad.uga.edu/>
See "Student Services"

5. Information about the International Student Orientation:
Fall Semester: August 2-6, 2010
<http://www.uga.edu/isl/>

6. Information about campus housing:
http://www.uga.edu/gradschool/student/student_services.html#Housing

7. Information about campus parking:
http://www.uga.edu/gradschool/student/student_services.html#ParkingServices

8. Necessary Health Forms:
http://www.uhs.uga.edu/appts_forms/open_comm.html - See "Attention Newly Admitted Students"

9. Health Insurance:
<http://www.uhs.uga.edu/insurance/index.html>

10. Other helpful websites:

Campus Map: <http://maps.uga.edu/website/htmlviewer/hyperlink/viewer.htm>

University Bus System: <http://www.transit.uga.edu/>

Athens Apartment Guide (off-campus housing):

<http://www.apartmentfinder.com/>

<http://www.apartmentguide.com/apartments/Georgia/Athens/>

Craig's List Athens (classified ads): <http://athensga.craigslist.org/>

The Red & Black (university newspaper): <http://www.redandblack.com/>

Athens Banner Herald (city newspaper): <http://www.onlineathens.com/>

The Flagpole (weekly city publication): <http://flagpole.com/>