

International Business Programs at Terry College of Business

University of Lyon III, France

This exchange program with the Institut d'Administration des Entreprises (IAE), University of Lyon's Business & Management School, allows Terry students to study French and a full range of business courses in one of the biggest business schools in France. Students can choose to take classes one semester or a full year. There are options for courses taught in English or French.

Destination:

Lyon, France

Program dates:

Fall semester -- September through mid-December

Spring semester -- mid-January through April

Courses and Credit:

Courses taken on UGA exchanges are counted as transfer credit. A credit approval form is required prior to departure. Students should discuss course selections and how they apply to degree requirements with their academic advisor.

Cost:

Tuition is equivalent to UGA tuition, and fees are paid to UGA. Lodging, meals, travel and transportation expense information will be provided by the host institution once a formal exchange is initiated.

To Apply:

Contact the Office of International Education for more information on eligibility and the application process.

goabroad@uga.edu