

International Business Programs at Terry College of Business

Agder University, Norway

This exchange program with Agder University allows Terry students to participate in courses from a variety of business disciplines. Courses are taught in English, but there are also offerings in German. Students will appreciate that Kristiansand is the sunniest place in Norway with regular domestic and international flights in addition to intercity bus connections, ferry and railway services.

Destination:

Kristiansand, Norway

Program dates:

Autumn semester -- August through December

Spring semester -- January through May

Courses and Credit:

Courses taken on UGA exchanges are counted as transfer credit. A credit approval form is required prior to departure. Students should discuss course selections and how they apply to degree requirements with their academic advisor.

Cost:

Tuition is equivalent to UGA tuition, and fees are paid to UGA. Lodging, meals, travel and transportation expense information will be provided by the host institution once a formal exchange is initiated.

To Apply:

Contact the Office of International Education for more information on eligibility and the application process.

goabroad@uga.edu