GET AHEAD AND MOVE UP THE LADDER.

Earn your MBA without putting your career on hold.

The Professional MBA program at the University of Georgia Terry College of Business makes it possible for early to mid-career professionals to achieve your career goals, keep your job, and still spend time with family and friends. Our cohort model combines in-person class sessions with online learning to provide maximum flexibility for working professionals. In less than two years, you'll gain the skills you need to move ahead with your current employer or make a change. Program staff and faculty provide the support you need to be successful; 98% of students who begin the PMBA program graduate on schedule.

POSITION YOURSELF FOR SUCCESS.

Experienced and highly qualified University of Georgia faculty teach concepts you can apply at work immediately.

A 23-month combination of in-person classes and online learning offers flexibility for working professionals on a predictable schedule.

Current topics, activities featuring real-world business problems, and an optional international residency help you gain a global perspective on business.

Learn from an exchange of ideas with accomplished classmates from a variety of industries and functional areas.
