

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATE – October 19–November 9, 2022

A LACK OF INCLUSION IS A QUANTIFIABLE RISK . . . MANAGE IT!

Earn certification verifying your understanding of the new international standard for diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging: ISO-30415:2021

Set yourself apart by earning an executive certificate from the University of Georgia based on current D&I standards. With training from established experts in this area, you'll learn to minimize risk by creating inclusive business processes and become certified in ISO 30415:2021.

Who Will Benefit?

D&I Consultants – Brokers – Product Managers
Accountants – Human Resource Professionals – Executives
Auditors – Procurement Professionals – Attorneys
Engaged Leaders and Managers of Others

Structure & Take-Aways

This asynchronous online program introduces the ISO-30415:2021 standard via the D&I Service Management (DISM) Lifecycle framework. The program features weekly live sessions with lecturers and Q&As to demonstrate the Inclusion Maturity Model Integration (IMMI) and use-cases across organizational governance, product delivery, human resources, and supply chain management.
