Chapter 3: Curriculum

Program Structure

During year one, students are introduced to fundamental business concepts that serve as a foundation for their MBA. Beginning in the spring of year one, students continue the fundamental business courses while beginning some elective courses that align with their career and concentration interests. During the second year, students pursuing the Professional MBA will immerse themselves in their chosen area of concentration while fulfilling their remaining core requirements.

The curriculum for the Professional MBA Program is designed to prepare students for their growing careers. When a student earns an MBA from Terry, employers know they completed a thorough and in-depth study of their selected areas of interest.

To help students signal their MBA focus to employers we offer six concentrations. The PMBA curriculum totals 48 credit hours through a combination of core courses and electives. Electives are included in the concentrations such that all MBA courses count toward the graduation requirement of 48 credit hours.

Concentrations

PMBA Concentrations give you the opportunity to focus on an area that can further your career or allow you to explore an area of business/study you would like to pursue. Students finalize their concentration selections during module 5. The electives and concentrations offered in the professional MBA program vary year to year and are subject to change.

- Students may choose from six concentrations:
- Finance/Accounting
- Innovation/Entrepreneurship
- Leadership
- Marketing
- Operations/Supply Chain Management
- Real Estate

Select a Concentration by December 1st of your 1st year

- Email your selection to Greg Armstrong (garmstro@uga.edu)
- Your academic advisor (Greg) will monitor and confirm completion of your concentration.
- A completion certificate will be provided once all grades post to your transcript.
- Concentrations do not appear on the diploma or transcript
  - The concentrations associated with the program are for internal purposes. They are intended to give students an opportunity to focus on an area that can further their career or allow them to explore an area of business/study they would like to pursue. Many students choose to promote their concentrations on LinkedIn, resume, etc.

Program of Study Form

A Program of Study form must be completed and included in the application for graduation to the UGA Graduate School. Deadlines for submission and assistance in completing this online form will be done with the program Academic Advisor at the appropriate time based on program completion path.

Chapter 3: Academic Policies

Formal policies are created and implemented by various committees in the University System of Georgia (USG), including UGA's Graduate School, Terry College, and the PMBA Program to ensure a fair and consistent experience for students. By adhering to the following policies, we unite in the spirit of our collective goals and program culture.

Enrollment

Leave of Absence

A leave of absence provides a mechanism for students experiencing unusual circumstances to be exempt temporarily from the continuous enrollment policy. A leave of absence requires approval of the MBA Program Director and the Dean of Graduate School. A leave of absence will be granted only for good cause such as serious medical and health-related issues, major financial and employment issues; pregnancy, childbirth, child care, elder care, and other significant family issues; and other major personal circumstances that interfere with the ability to undertake graduate study.*

An approved leave of absence stands in lieu of registering for the minimum credits for each module for which the leave of absence is granted. During a leave of absence, students may not use UGA facilities, resources, or services designed or intended only for enrolled students; receive financial aid from the University; or take any UGA courses related to their program of study. An approved leave of absence does not stop the clock unless the leave is granted for pregnancy, childbirth, or adoption (see below). Time on leave counts toward any University, Graduate School, or program time limits pertaining to the degree being sought.

*Pregnancy, Childbirth, and Adoption: Time spent on an approved leave of absence due to pregnancy, childbirth, and/or adoption of a child under six years of age will not count toward time limits governing their graduate degree.

Students may apply for a leave of absence for good cause such as serious medical and health-related issues, major financial and employment issues; pregnancy, childbirth, childcare, elder care, and other significant family issues; and other major personal circumstances that interfere with the ability to undertake graduate study. An approved leave of absence stands in lieu of registering for the minimum credits for each module for which the leave of absence is granted.

It is the student's responsibility to apply for a leave of absence in timely fashion. An approved leave of absence does not exempt students from the enrollment requirements of other programs, offices, and agencies such as the Veterans Administration, Immigration and Naturalization Service, and federal financial aid programs. Eligibility for certain types of financial aid requires enrollment for more credits than the Continuous Enrollment Policy.

A student may apply for a leave of absence before or during any semester in which they are not registered for courses. Application for a Leave of Absence must be received by the Graduate School Office of Enrollment Services on or before the last day of classes for the semester for which it is requested. A leave of absence will not be granted retroactively after the end of a semester.

A student may request a leave of absence for one semester, two consecutive semesters, or three consecutive semesters (summer semester included). There is a 12-month limit for any one request of leave of absence. A student may submit multiple requests for a leave of absence subject to a 3-semester limit for master's students.

Monitoring and Compliance

After the last day of each semester, any degree-seeking graduate student who has not maintained continuous enrollment by registering for the required credits or obtaining an approved leave of absence will lose their status as an enrolled graduate student. The Graduate School will notify suspended students of this action in writing within thirty (30) days of the start of the next semester.

Students who wish to resume graduate study must: (a) re-apply to the Graduate School for admission and pay required application fees. Re-admission is not guaranteed and requires approval of the student's former program, (b) pay a re-enrollment fee equivalent to registering for 3 graduate credits at the current in-state tuition rate for each non-enrolled semester, including summer, up to a maximum of 9 hours.

Students may appeal actions resulting from violation of the Continuous Graduate Enrollment Policy or denial of a requested leave of absence by submitting a request in writing to the Dean of the Graduate School. The appeal should include documentation of unusual and extenuating circumstances that could justify an individual exception to the policy. A negative decision by the Dean of the Graduate School may be appealed to the Administrative Committee of the Graduate Council.

Withdrawals

Students who wish to withdraw from a course may do so by following the appropriate procedure through Athena, while giving proper notice to the instructor of the course and the Office of Student Engagement.

Enrollment Status

Students who withdraw from a course should know a reduction in their course load because of withdrawal may affect their, financial aid, athletic eligibility, and/or full-time student status. Students should contact the appropriate office if they have questions about the impact of their withdrawal from a course.

Grade Assignment

A graduate student who withdraws from a course or is withdrawn by the instructor for excessive absences prior to the midpoint of a semester is assigned a grade of W by the instructor. A student who withdraws or is withdrawn for excessive absences after the midpoint of the semester (date to be specified in the Schedule of Classes) is assigned a grade of F, except in those cases in which the student is doing satisfactory work and the withdrawal is recommended by the Office of Student Affairs because of emergency or health reasons.

Grade Reporting System

The grading scale for graduate students is as follows:

Grade	Scale	Numerical Value
A	Excellent	4.0
A-		3.7
B+	Good	3.3
B		3.0
B-		2.7
C+	Satisfactory	2.3
C		2.0
C-	Not accepted as a passing grade; 1.7 on MBA program of study
D	Not accepted as a passing grade; 1.0 on MBA program of study
F	Failure	0.0

The W designation indicates that the student was permitted to withdraw from a course while doing unsatisfactory work or withdrew after the midpoint of the grading period. The withdrawal from a course under these circumstances is equivalent to a failure. The symbol W will be assigned for withdrawals after the midpoint of a grading period in cases of hardship. A determination that a hardship exists must be made by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and communicated to the Graduate School.

S/Satisfactory – Not Computed

This grade indicates satisfactory participation in certain required courses. Normally, S grades are given in a limited number of professional, seminar, or graduate-level courses. Credit is included in hours earned. The grade is not included in the grade point average computation.

U/Unsatisfactory – Not Computed

This symbol indicates that a student was doing satisfactory work but, for non-academic reasons beyond his/her control, was unable to meet the full requirements of the course. An Incomplete should not ordinarily be given unless the student has completed a substantial part of the course. The instructor of the course should indicate to the student the deadline for completing the work in the course. No more than three semesters (counting summer school as one semester) may be allowed to complete the work in the course, but the instructor may specify an earlier deadline. If an I grade is not satisfactorily removed after three semesters, the I grade will be changed to a grade of F (or U grade for a course graded S/U) by the Registrar.

A/S – Not Computed

This symbol indicates that both A-F and S/U grading systems are permitted in a course. Such courses are identified in their course description and are limited in number. The instructor should explain the conditions for the use of both grading systems at the beginning of the course.

If a student does not receive a grade in a course for which the student is enrolled, one of the following designations must be placed on the student's record:

I/Incomplete – Not Computed

This symbol indicates that a student was doing satisfactory work but, for non-academic reasons beyond his/her control, was unable to meet the full requirements of the course. An Incomplete should not ordinarily be given unless the student has completed a substantial part of the course.

The instructor of the course should indicate to the student the deadline for completing the work in the course. No more than three semesters (counting summer school as one semester) may be allowed to complete the work in the course, but the instructor may specify an earlier deadline. If an I grade is not satisfactorily removed after three semesters, the I grade will be changed to a grade of F (or U grade for a course graded S/U) by the Registrar.

W/Withdrawal – Not Computed

This grade indicates that a student was permitted to withdraw from a course. Withdrawals will not be permitted after the withdrawal deadline of the semester (date is specified in the Academic Calendar) except in cases of hardship as determined by the appropriate official. This grade is not included in the grade point average computation.

V/Audit – Not Computed

No credit is given for an audit. Students may not transfer from audit to credit status or vice versa after the closing of the drop/add period of each semester.

ER/Error – Not Computed

This symbol indicates an error in reporting. If not removed after one semester, the ER becomes a grade of W. Upon receiving a grade of ER, the student should consult with the course instructor.

UGA Academic Honesty Policy

The University of Georgia seeks to promote and ensure academic honesty and personal integrity among students and other members of the university community. Academic honesty is defined broadly and simply - the performance of all academic work without cheating, lying, stealing, or receiving assistance from any other person or using any source of information not appropriately authorized or attributed. All members of the University community are responsible for creating and maintaining an honest university, and all must work together to ensure the success of the policy and code of behavior. All members of the university community are responsible for knowing and understanding the policy on academic honesty. The goals of the UGA honesty policy are to:

1. Foster a culture of academic honesty in the university community.
2. Maintain the integrity and academic reputation of the university.
3. Process fairly and consistently matters related to academic dishonesty.

The complete policy is available here: <https://honesty.uga.edu/Academic-Honesty-Policy/>.

The academic honesty policy is supplemented (not replaced) by an Honor Code which was adopted by the Student Government Association and approved by the University Council May 1, 1997 and provides: "I will be academically honest in all of my academic work and will not tolerate academic dishonesty of others." All students agree to abide by this code by signing the initial UGA Admissions Application.

Any member of the University community who has personal knowledge of facts relating to an alleged violation of this policy has a responsibility to report that alleged violation to the Office of the Vice President for Instruction as provided in this policy. Required conduct includes, but is not limited to, participating in a discussion with the student believed to have violated the policy and truthfully answering questions and providing documentation of the matter to an Academic Honesty Panel.

UGA Policy on Persons with Disabilities

The University of Georgia is committed to its mission of providing equal educational opportunities and a welcoming academic, physical, and social environment for students with disabilities. The Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504, provides the foundation for equal access for students with disabilities. The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 furthers civil rights of persons with disabilities by mandating equal educational opportunity. These laws guide The University of Georgia in its commitment to serve qualified students. Students may register for services at the Disability Resource Center, located at 114 Clark Howell Hall, 706-542-8719, or visit their website at <http://drc.uga.edu/>

Academic Probation Policy

Students of the Terry MBA program and The University of Georgia Graduate School may be dismissed by their program at the end of any semester if they have not made sufficient academic progress to warrant continuance of study.

The MBA program defines sufficient academic progress to warrant continuance of study below in its Satisfactory Progress Policy.

Professional MBAs must earn at least 48 credit hours with a letter grade of C or above (fall, spring, summer). Grades below C or Incompletes do not count as earned credit hours.

If the student has been placed on academic probation for any reason for one term, received written communication from the MBA program concerning insufficient academic progress, and does not meet the standards outlined above, the MBA program reserves the right to prevent the student from enrollment in future terms and to formally dismiss the student from the MBA program.

Dismissal Policy

The University of Georgia Graduate School maintains the official graduate policy regarding dismissal of a student from their program of study. Students may be dismissed from the PMBA program by the Graduate School at the end of any semester if they have not made sufficient academic progress to warrant continuance of study. Termination of students will follow the policies and procedures adopted by the Terry MBA program and will be reported to the UGA Graduate School.

Dismissal of graduate students will follow policies and procedures adopted by the program. The program must immediately notify the Graduate School of a dismissal. A program may dismiss a student for:

- Failure to pass comprehensive or other required examinations
- Inadequate academic progress
- Failure to meet program requirements (academic, professional)
- Failure to adhere to the honor code
- Title IX/Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment violation
- Research misconduct
- Violation of ethical or professional standards

Program dismissal triggers dismissal from the UGA Graduate School, unless the student remains in good standing in another program at UGA. Dismissal by a program may be appealed to the Dean of the Graduate School after all avenues of appeal have been exhausted at the school or college level. This should be completed within 30 calendar days of the decision at the previous level.

If a student is dismissed by a program, they may reapply to the Graduate School for admission to the same graduate program or a different degree-granting unit, unless the dismissal was triggered by:

- Failure to adhere to the honor code
- Title IX/ Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment violation
- Research misconduct
- Violation of ethical (professional) standards in program's handbook (or professional society)

Graduate School Dismissal. Students with a cumulative graduate course GPA below 3.0 for two consecutive terms are placed on academic probation by the Graduate School. They then must make a 3.0 or higher GPA (in graduate courses) every succeeding semester until the cumulative graduate GPA is 3.0 or above. If they make below a 3.0 semester graduate GPA while on probation, they are dismissed. When students repeat a graduate course, the last grade will be utilized to calculate the cumulative graduate GPA that is used for probation, dismissal, admission to candidacy and graduation. Grades of S, U, I, and W will not be used in calculating the cumulative graduate average. However, when a grade of I converts to F, this may result in an action of probation or dismissal for the semester in which the conversion takes place, even if the student is not registered for the semester in which it converted.

Students who are dismissed by the Graduate School for academic reasons may appeal the dismissal to the Dean of the Graduate School. The appeal must be submitted to the dean within 30 calendar days following receipt of notice of dismissal. Information concerning the appeal process may be obtained in the Graduate School. Contact gradassociatedean@uga.edu for more information.

Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy

The University of Georgia is committed to maintaining a fair and respectful environment for living, work, and study. Every member of the University community is expected to uphold the Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy as a matter of mutual respect and fundamental fairness in human relations. Every student, staff, and faculty member of the University has a responsibility to conduct himself/herself in accordance with this policy as a condition of enrollment and/or employment.

Detailed information regarding The University of Georgia's Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy can be found at <http://legal.uga.edu/olapol.html>.

Grade Appeals

Students appealing grades must first contact the instructor of a course to appeal a final course grade. If the student receives an unfavorable decision, the student can then appeal to the department in which the course is housed, using procedures established by the requisite school or college. Please note that students can only appeal final course grades. If the student is given an unfavorable decision from the department, the student can then appeal to the college. After the decision at the college level, the student has 30 days to initiate their appeal to the Graduate School. Grade appeal decisions made by the Appeals Committee can be appealed to the Educational Affairs Committee. The Appeals Committee of the Graduate Council does not hear grade appeals from professional programs. Appeals involving hardship withdraws and Incompletes (I's) converting to F's are heard by the Educational Affairs Committee, not the Appeals Committee. To contact the Educational Affairs Committee, please email ovpiappeals@uga.edu.

Chapter 4: Program Standards & Expectations

DEI Statement

The Terry College is committed to promoting diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging among its students, faculty, and staff. This program welcomes the open exchange of ideas and values freedom of thought and expression. This class provides a professional environment that recognizes the inherent worth of every person. It aims to foster dignity, understanding, and mutual respect among all individuals in the class.

MBA Code of Professional Conduct

All University of Georgia, Terry College of Business (TCOB) MBA students are required to adhere to a code of professional conduct. This code represents the fundamental values that underlie all community interactions in the University of Georgia's Terry College. The tenets of the code are Respect, Integrity, and Professionalism. The following outline describes several expectations within each category. It is not intended to be an exhaustive list, rather a summary of general behavior and character to be demonstrated by Terry College of Business students pursuing an MBA degree.

Code of Professional Conduct Acknowledgement Form

You will be asked to sign an acknowledgement of this code at the beginning of your program application and this signed contract is on file with the Admissions department. You will also receive a copy of this for your own records. This form also verifies that you have received access to the MBA Student Guidebook.

Tenets of the Code

Respect: Students are expected to demonstrate due regard for the rights, beliefs, time, and traditions of all parties and behave in a thoughtful and courteous manner. All communication and demeanor with faculty, staff members, classmates, employers, and all other campus constituents shall abide by the policies and standards outlined in the Terry College Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion commitment which fosters a welcoming and inclusive learning and working environment while promoting dignity and respect to all parties. This expectation extends to appropriate preparation for scheduled meetings, punctuality, polite manners, and regular class attendance and participation.

Integrity: The PMBA program expects honesty in all interactions and communications. The integrity tenet incorporates all guidelines outlined above in the UGA Academic Honesty Policy section.

Professionalism: Professionalism is the practice of integrity and respect in all interactions. It is viewed as the gold standard in behavior that demonstrates a student's level of competence and skills. This includes punctuality, appropriate attire, demeanor, awareness of audience, respectful behavior, and timely communication in all interactions whether on or off campus.

Violation of Code of Professional Conduct

Failure to abide by this Code of Professional Conduct is considered a breach of responsibilities to the PMBA Program, the Terry College, and the University of Georgia. The consequences for violating the code of conduct can range from a warning to dismissal from the program. The consequences exist to reinforce to internal and external constituents the Program's commitment to high standards of ethical conduct.

Classroom Expectations/ Information

Dress

Generally, students dress casually for class. Casual dress is defined as shorts, t-shirts and/or jeans. There may be instances where students will need to dress in business casual for class guest lectures, presentations, and/or on-campus events.

Business casual is defined as:

- Men: Dress slacks or khaki pants with a collared, button-down dress shirt. Tie and sport coat are optional.
- Women: Dress slacks or skirt with a blouse or collared, button-down dress shirt. A professional dress may also be worn.

Tardiness

MBA students are expected to arrive for classes, events, team meetings, and appointments on time and ready to contribute. Professors may choose to decrease the grade of students with excessive tardiness as outlined in the syllabus.

Missing Classes

It is the responsibility of the PMBA student to adhere to class schedules and attend all classes. Students are responsible for notifying his/her professor of an absence, as well as taking necessary measures to make up the missed material.

Exact policies on absences for each class will be outlined in the specific course syllabus provided to students in eLC at the beginning of each course. Professors may choose to decrease the grade of students with excessive absences or even drop them from or failure of the course, as outlined in the syllabus.

Class Participation

Class participation and group participation is encouraged in PMBA classes when appropriate to the content of the course. However, talking during class and disrupting the learning environment of other students is unacceptable. Students talking excessively and disrupting others may be asked to leave the classroom and disciplinary action may be taken.

Teams

Teams for modules 1-5 are assigned at the start of the program in the Organizational Behavior and Leadership course in module 1. Teams are purposefully built to pair you with people who are different from you, and you will work in your team in various ways. Elective courses will vary for each student and each elective course will require its own specific team formation. Elective course teams will be formed based on each professor's requirements.

- What happens if I no longer want to work on the same team? Students can negotiate team swaps within their cohort. If you join a new team, you are required to notify the program of the change.
- What if a problem arises with a member and the overall group no longer wants that member on the team? The program will not force a team to work with a member they no longer feel is contributing equally to the team. A team can move on without a team member. Teams who drop a member are required to notify the program of the change.

- My team no longer wants to work with me, what should I do? If your team has found cause to no longer work with you, it is your responsibility to find another team within your cohort. Once you find a new team, you are required to notify the program.
- Can we add new members to our team? Is there a team member limit? Teams can add members; however, teams should not exceed 5 members and/or be less than 3 members. For any team additions, you are required to notify the program.
- Who do I notify about changes? Email Kristy Simpkins at simpkins@uga.edu

Class Recordings

Unless a contradictory policy is announced in a particular course, electronic recording of class discussions is not permitted without the express and written permission of the instructor or without a disability accommodation approved by UGA's Disability Resource Center. Faculty members may in certain cases provide a recording of their class for students who must miss class, but they are not required to.

Class Times

Computer Security Requirements

Keeping your laptop safe and secure ensures not only that you have a stable platform to rely on, but also that you help protect others on the Terry and UGA network. Terry OIT will be happy to consult with you if you have any questions about keeping your laptop secure. EITS reserves the right to block any machine from the network if it is infected with a Trojan or other virus. Don't let this happen to you!

UGA Computer Use Policy Statement:

http://eits.uga.edu/access\_and\_security/infosec/pols\_regs/policies/aup

Very important: You will be held accountable for understanding this policy regarding the responsible use of computers at UGA.

Antivirus Software

Any machine that connects to a University of Georgia or Terry College network is required to have antivirus software running with up-to-date definitions. If you do not already have anti-virus on your machine, UGA's EITS suggests installing Microsoft Security. You may want to install a strong anti-spyware tool like Ad-Aware, SpyBot, Malwarebytes or SuperAntiSpyware.

Best Practices to Keep your Machine Secure

- Windows Updates: Run this often if you do not choose to set it to run automatically. Automatic updates are strongly recommended.
- Office Updates: Check for these often – more often if you are using Outlook for email.

- Say NO to Freeware: Be VERY careful in what you choose to download and install. Often innocuous-looking software can install spyware or open security holes in your machine without your knowledge.
- Say NO to most free file-sharing software: This type of software is illegal, unethical, against UGA's Computer Use Policy and can cause multiple problems on your machine.

Terry OIT and UGA's EITS reserves the right not to support any machine running illegal sharing software and to restrict access to the network for any machine broadcasting spyware or other disruptive services.

Wireless Network Information

You can gain access to the wireless network by authenticating via your UGA MyID and password.

Chapter 6: Clubs & Program Events

Starting a PMBA club

Before starting a club there are a few things you must do:

1. Tell us about your club:
  - a. What is the mission statement of the club?
  - b. What is the purpose?
  - c. How will this Club benefit our Professional MBA student body?
  - d. How many roles are you looking to fill – and what are these roles?
2. You will need to set up a formal application process, and interview students. Once you have a list, submit the list to Stephanie Aubone, Associate Director of programming; s.aubone@uga.edu. The list will go through an Academic Standing review. To join a club, students must be in good academic standing.
3. Once you have this information and the club is officially formed and approved, Stephanie will provide information on resources such as listservs, budget, etc. If during the application process you want to email students, she can assist with that as well.
4. Meeting Space: Groups are more than welcome to use the breakout spaces available in TEEC to meet. If you would like to request a classroom, contact Stephen Rice at STEPHEN.RICE@uga.edu
