-----terry.uga.edu/undergraduate-----

All new UGA students who plan to pursue the BBA degree will be admitted to the Terry College of Business as "intended-business majors." These students will be advised by intended-business advisors in the Exploratory Center, or if applicable, in Honors. For most students, application to enter a Terry major will occur in the second semester of their second (sophomore) year.

Students will apply and be evaluated for admission based on selection criteria specific to the desired major. Students must meet the following entrance requirements in order to apply for admission to a Terry BBA major:

- ✓ Be enrolled at UGA
- ✓ Have a 2.60 earned overall grade point average (includes all coursework combined—both transfer courses and UGA courses)
- ✓ Be in good academic standing (2.00 or higher UGA GPA at application deadline or no UGA GPA for a new transfer student)
- ✓ Complete BBA General Education Core Curriculum I-VI (students may apply if they are enrolled in coursework that fulfills these requirements)
- ✓ Complete MATH 1113 (Precalculus); passing grade or exemption must be posted to your academic record by application deadline
- ✓ Complete ACCT 2101; passing grade must be posted to your UGA academic record by application deadline
- ✓ Complete (or be currently enrolled in) BUSN 3000 (formerly MSIT 3000)

Note: Students who withdraw from any of the above required courses are at risk of having their major admission rescinded.
