BIOGRAPHY

James M. Carson is the Daniel P. Amos Distinguished Professor of Insurance in the Terry College of Business at the University of Georgia. Professor Carson serves as the Head of the Insurance, Legal Studies, & Real Estate Department, and also as the Director of the C. Herman Terry Risk Management & Insurance (RMI) Program. He teaches various RMI courses at the undergraduate, masters, and doctoral levels, including a First-Year Odyssey course entitled, “Who Is Warren Buffett?” Prior to joining the faculty at UGA, he served at Florida State University (2001-2011) as the Midyette Eminent Scholar and Department Head, and at Illinois State University (1993-2001) as the Katie Research Professor and Interim Director of the Katie School of Insurance. Dr. Carson received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in Finance from the University of Nebraska. Since earning his Ph.D. in Risk & Insurance from the University of Georgia, he has received several teaching, research, and service awards. In 1998 he completed the Lloyd’s of London / Katie Executive Education Program through Lincoln College at Oxford University.

Professor Carson is a Past-President (2004-2005) of the American Risk and Insurance Association, the world’s premier academic risk and insurance organization.
